CHINESE COUNTER-OFFENSIVE PROVES SUCCESSFUL

DRIVE ON CANTON MADE FROM FEW POINTS

THREE TOWNS ARE RECAPTURED

THE CHINESE COUNTER-OFFENSIVE on Canton, which was started a few days ago, has developed successfully, and excellent progress is reported on the various sectors.

The drive on the city is being made from several directions, and this is supported by guerrillas who are operating in many places and causing great difficulty to the Japanese forces.

Taileung, in the Shuntak district; Fatshan, west of Canton; and Pokio, east of the city, are reported to have been recaptured. The vanguards of the Chinese forces driving along the Canton-Hankow Railway have occupied Shuping, about seven miles north of Canton, while another column has reached Lungku, about five miles east of Shuping.

TSUNGGA, ABOUT 35 MILES northeast of Canton, is also stated to be threatened by the Chinese forces.

COUNTY SEAT RETAKEN

Shekki, Nov. 11.

Chinese troops have recaptured Taileung, the county seat of Shuntak, about 45 miles south-east of Canton. The attacking force was commanded by Col. Yuan Hsianglin, and was assisted by the irregulars under General Li Fu-lin.

A Chinese report claimed the recapture of Fatshan, about fifteen miles west of Canton, on the West River, and Pokio, about 30 miles east of Canton.—International.

CHINESE PRESS ON TSUNGGA

Yungku, Nov. 11.

The spearhead of the Chinese column launching a counter-drive on Tsungga, 35 miles northeast of Canton, and 28 miles northwest of Tsengshing, is reported to have pushed to Taishekung, to the northeast of the city. Japanese outposts have been forced back.—Central News.

FIGHTING AT SHEKLUNG

The Chinese forces have occupied Shuping, about seven miles north of Canton, and another column has reached Lungku, just below Koton, according to the "Wah Kiu Yat Po."

A part of the Chinese army is now rounding up the retreating Japanese at Kwoktong.

Severe fighting has been in progress at Sheklung, where the Japanese suffered a few hundred casualties. More than 300 Japanese were taken prisoners, and it is stated that many of these were natives of Shantung and Manchuria who were forced to fight in the Japanese army.

Japanese reinforcements have been sent to Taileung and Shuping.

TSUNGGA is so seriously threatened that its fall may be expected within two days.

CALLED BACK TO CANTON

Shiukwan, Nov. 11.

In view of the Chinese menace to Canton, a part of the Japanese troops operating around Samshui, on the West River, about 27 miles west of Canton, are understood to have been called back to defend the city.

The Chinese have blown up many bridges across the river and on the highways leading to Canton to impede the arrival of Japanese reinforcements.—Central News.

SWARMED WITH GUERRILLAS

Shiukwan, Nov. 11.

Kwangtung is now swarmed with guerrilla units which have been reorganised from the People's Self-Defence Corps.

The province has been divided into several guerrilla areas. In each area are a number of hsien or municipal guerrilla units and in command of each hsien are a commander and a vice-commander.

Close contact is being established between various guerrilla units in order effectively to harass the Japanese.

The magistrates, mayors and other civil officials of various hsien and municipalities have been in-

Mr. Anthony Eden To "Sound" Public

London, November 11. PARLIAMENTARY CIRCLES here are discussing the possibility of Mr. Anthony Eden coming forward as leader of the new political party. It is believed that he has in mind to rally to his support all dissatisfied adherents of the Liberal and Labour parties.

This whole question was discussed "openly" in some London newspapers this morning.

Mr. Eden, it is said, has the intention of explaining the various points of his programme in the course of a series of public speeches which will enable him to find out the mood of the public and the strength of his following.

Another version says that Mr. Eden will confine his efforts to induce Mr. Chamberlain to extend the basis of his Cabinet.—Transocean.

PHIL KNIGHT DEAD

On Way Back From Leave

The many friends in the Colony of Mr. Phil Knight, of the Sanitary Department, will be shocked to learn of his death, at sea, on board the P. and O. s.s. Corfu.

The late Mr. Knight was returning to the Colony from home leave. He was buried at Bombay.

The deceased was a former Colony interport lawn bowler and was a very popular member of the Kowloon Cricket Club. The Club flag was flown at half-mast yesterday as a mark of respect.

GENERALISSIMO'S NEW ROLE

Shanghai, Nov. 11.

Marshal Chiang Kai-shek, who as chairman of the Executive Committee of the Kuomintang and the Military Committee of the Chinese Central Government has hitherto always exercised dictatorial powers, will from now onwards, so it is stated here, base all important political decisions exclusively on his own judgment.

Generalissimo Chiang will also handle all diplomatic affairs as well.

In accordance with the "outline of armed resistance and national reconstruction" the supreme nation leader will also carefully consider any resolutions adopted by the forthcoming plenary session of the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang regarding China's foreign policy.—Transocean.

King At Impressive Cenotaph Ceremony

London, November 11.

THE EMPIRE-WIDE CELEBRATIONS OF ARMISTICE DAY were epitomised in a ceremony at the Whitehall Cenotaph in which, in accordance with custom, the King played a leading part and in which the Queen and Queen Mary and other ladies of the Royal family joined from their seats in windows of the Home Office, overlooking the Cenotaph.

A brilliant sunshine with a light warm breeze brought record crowds to Whitehall, almost the whole length of it being closely packed with people who, without exception, wore artificial poppies which were on sale in the streets for ex-Servicemen Funds.

THE KING'S WREATH

Before the Service began King placed a wreath at the base of the Cenotaph and others were put in position on behalf of Queen Mary and other members of the Royal family, all Empire Governments, the Royal Navy, Army, Royal Air Force, Merchant Navy and Fishing Fleet.

These formalities were completed just before eleven, at which hour the guns signalled for the two minutes silence. It was followed

BRITISH AIRWAYS MERGER

London, Nov. 11.

The Imperial Airways and British Airways will be acquired by the Civil Corporation, declared Sir Kingsley Wood in the House of Commons.

Owing to the rapid expansion of aviation in Britain and other parts of the Empire, it is necessary for the pooling of resources in order to facilitate better organisation.

It is hoped a fair price will be arranged for the purchase of the two airways but if the price cannot be agreed upon it will be fixed by an independent tribunal.

The new corporation will be financed by fixed interest stocks guaranteed by the Government.—Reuter.

LOCAL JOURNALIST AS A LIFE-SAVER

But There Was No Interview!

By J. H. Franco

A FERRY LAUNCH A TOW-BOAT AND A CARGO JUNK. That was the setting of a drama in the harbour last evening. Others in the cast were Messrs. H. Brokenshire, night editor of the "Morning Post," D. A. Doyle and J. Hawkins, of the s.s. Banapura. They all had roles of life-savers.

Tow-boat, and junk were going towards Lyemun and everything was roses all the way till the 6.50 p.m. ferry launch from Kowloon collided with the junk, smashing it to matchwood. All aboard were thrown into the harbour. Almost instantaneously, the three life savers who were passengers on the ferry boat took off their jackets and jumped overboard. This is what they achieved.

Mr. Brokenshire, rescued one woman, Mr. Doyle, rescued one woman and three children, Mr. J. Hawkins, rescued two old women. Harold Brokenshire, however, had the extra distinction of saving two cats, members of the crew of the junk who, with feline tenacity hung on to the head of the old woman he pulled out of the water. That however was not all. After depositing the woman and cats safely on the lower deck of the ferry, Mr. Brokenshire helped to haul out two youngsters from the water. The three life-savers, their jobs well and truly done, quietly donned their jackets and resumed their seats.

No interviews were granted. Not even by Mr. Brokenshire, the journalist!

Nazi Anti-Jewish Demonstrations Shock The Whole World

Commenting on the German anti-Jewish demonstrations, the "Daily Telegraph" states that no foreign propagandist, bent on blackening Germany before the world, could do or outdo the tale of burnings and beatings, of the blueguardly assaults on a defenceless and innocent people which was displayed in that country yesterday. Either the German authorities were a party to this outbreak or their powers over public order and the hooligan minority are not what they are proudly claimed to be.

The leader in this journal, headed "A Feroocious Revenge," states that Germany had delivered herself over to an orgy savagely which will send thrill and horror throughout the civilised world.

WORLD ASTONISHED

Paris, Nov. 11.

The whole world is astonished and indignant that in a country as civilised as Germany the crime of a single individual can provoke such terrible reprisals, says the "L'Ordre."

The world will one day rise against the Fuehrer and constrain him to respect civilisation of which Germany had only recently been justly proud. The "Populaire" says that the criminal gesture of a child allows the Government of eighty millions to revive the somberst happenings of the Middle Ages.—Reuter.

SHAME AND DEGRADATION

New York, Nov. 11.

Thus does a great Government take revenge for the act of a maddened boy, a Government which boasts the order it maintains and aspires to spread over all Central Europe, says the "New York Times."

The western powers recently acquired bloodless victories as a prelude to European appeasement. Instead they were the prelude to scenes on which no man can look without shame for the degradation of his species.—Reuter.

CANTON—A CITY OF THE DEAD

(SPECIAL TO THE "HONGKONG DAILY PRESS").

IN VIEW OF THE FACT that the Japanese Army's South China Headquarters have thrown a fifteen-mile cordon around Canton, it appears to be improbable, contrary reports notwithstanding that any fighting of a serious nature is going on in the outskirts of the former Kwangtung capital, although it is possible that guerrillas may be operating there, according to a resident of that city who has just arrived in Hongkong.

Interviewed by a representative of the "Hongkong Daily Press," this informant gave some interesting details of conditions in Canton following the entry of the Japanese.

"YOU MAY HAVE HEARD," he asserted, "that, after the withdrawal of the Chinese forces, two ammunition dumps were blown up. These, fortunately, did not occur at the same time for if they had, it is most probable that there will be less left of Canton than is actually standing to-day, and it is almost certain that Shamen would have been blown off the map.

"A railway-car wheel, weighing not less than 170 lbs., was thrown into the air during one of these explosions and it fell on the Hongkong, Canton & Macao Wharf, on the Canton Bund, only a short distance from Shamen."

According to our informant, every window pane in Shamen was shattered by these explosions and most of the walls of hongs and houses were cracked. Men who had formerly seen active service in the Great War had told our informant that the blasts were the most serious that they had ever experienced.

The Japanese High Command is apparently very anxious that the people of Canton should return to the city without delay, but this appears to be a wish hardly likely to be realized for the present.

When our informant called to see the Officer Commanding the first question that the latter asked, before shaking hands, was "Why don't the Chinese people return to the city?"

Canton is now almost absolutely deserted except for Japanese forces and a few of the poorer Chinese, who were unable to escape before the invaders arrived, as well as some traitors who hope to get jobs when a new puppet government is formed.

"The city is now dead," said our informant, "and no business of any nature is being done. As a matter of fact, businessmen, realizing this, do not now even take the trouble to attend office."

"LEST WE FORGET" Armistice Anniversary Observed In Colony

IMPRESSIVE CENOTAPH CEREMONY

THE TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY of November 11, 1918, was observed in Hongkong yesterday with traditional British quietness and lack of display, the main ceremony, as usual, being that of the Two Minutes' Silence and the laying of wreaths at the Cenotaph.

The scene at the Cenotaph was more stirring and solemn than in past years and the demeanour of the crowds and the fervent manner in which they joined in the singing of the hymn "O God, Our Help in Ages Past" was probable indication that the recent crisis through which the world has just passed, and of which the clouds are not yet entirely dispersed, was still fresh in their minds.

The Two Minutes' Silence, too, was observed far more satisfactorily than in past years, the only sound audible in the vicinity of the Cenotaph being two sharp blasts of a steamer siren in the harbour. There were also the usual noises made by innocent children but the unseemly behaviour noted last year of well-dressed men and women talking and moving about was entirely absent.

FOUR THOUSAND PRESENT

There must have been fully 4,000 people, participants and spectators combined, headed by His Excellency the Governor, gathered at and around the Cenotaph during the ceremony, and the police, assisted by the military, did fine work in controlling the multitude.

Apart from those immediately surrounding the Cenotaph, points of vantage were eagerly taken up on the verandahs and roofs of the Supreme Court, Hongkong Club, and Queen's and Prince's Buildings.

THE PROGRAMME

The whole programme was carried out according to the official arrangements announced on Monday.

From 10.30 a.m. onwards, naval and military detachments began to file into the square and took up their positions on the green turf surrounding the Cenotaph.

These included a detachment of officers and men of the United States destroyer John D. Ford.

Units stationed around the Cenotaph were:

8th Heavy Regiment, R.A., 5th Anti-Aircraft Regiment, R.A., Fortress Royal Engineers, Royal Corps of Signals, 2nd Bn. Royal Scots, 1st Bn. Lancashire Fusiliers, 2nd Bn. East Surrey Regiment, 1st Bn. Middlesex Regiment, 1st Bn. Seaforth Highlanders, Hongkong Regiment, H.K.S.R.A., Royal Army Service Corps, Royal Army Medical Corps, Royal Army Ordnance Corps, Royal Army Pay Corps, 5th Rajputana Rifles, 1st Bn. Kumaon Rifles, Hongkong Mule Corps, R.I.A.S.C., to the number of 120.

UNITS PRESENT

Other representatives were:—Royal Navy and Royal Marines, Hongkong Naval Volunteer Force, Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps, Royal Air Volunteer Defence Corps, Royal Air Force, Merchant Navy, British Legion, Royal Artillery Association, Royal Engineers Old Comrades Association, Foreign Armies and Navies, Civilian Services, St. John Ambulance Brigade, Boy Scouts' Association.

On the west side of the Cenotaph, the clergy, and the choir of the St. John's Cathedral, gathered. They included the Rt. Rev. R. O. Hall, Bishop of Hongkong, Bishop Valtorta, and the Very Rev. J. L. Wilson, Dean of St. John's.

Shortly before the hour, the Governor, escorted by a motor cycle detachment from the Volunteers, arrived and was greeted by His Excellency the C.-in-C., Admiral Sir Percy Noble, His Excellency the General Officer Commanding, Major-General A. W.

THE SILENCE

While the naval gun announcing the hour was being awaited, the pipers of the 2nd Bn. Royal Scots played "The Lament."

Shortly after this was finished, the gun boomed and immediately silence descended. Another gun crashed out, and the spell was broken, followed at once by the "Last Post," by the Drummers of the 1st Bn. Middlesex Regiment.

The massed bands then led the singing of the hymn, "O God our Help in Ages Past," in which the crowd eagerly joined, after which the clergy, presided over by Bishops Valtorta and Hall, led the prayers and blessed the gathering.

The Drummers of the Middlesex then sounded "The Rouse," and the massed bands played "God Save the King."

The Governor then placed his wreath at the foot of the Cenotaph, followed by the C.-in-C., the G.O.C. and the A.O.C., R.A.F., and Foreign Consuls, a representative of the Merchant Navy, of the Chinese Community and of the American Navy.

After His Excellency had made his departure and the military and naval units had dispersed, individual wreaths were laid on the Cenotaph which, viewed later, presented a beautiful sight—a touching reminder "lest we forget."

CHINESE ARCH CEREMONY

Thousands witnessed the memorial service held at the Chinese Memorial Arch at 11.45 p.m. yesterday, following the ceremony at the Cenotaph when His Excellency the Governor together with his Staff, followed by the Commander-in-Chief, the General Officer Commanding, the Officer Commanding the Air Force in the Far East and members of the Executive and Legislative Councils were met at the foot of the Botanical Gardens steps by the Chinese members of the Councils who escorted them to the Memorial.

Military Drummers of the 1st Bn. the Middlesex Regt., then sounded the "Last Post," broken by a short pause, and then followed by "The Rouse."

His Excellency the Governor then laid a wreath and was followed by the Commander-in-Chief, the General Officer Commanding, the Officer Commanding the Air Force in the Far East and the Secretary for Chinese Affairs.

Boy Scouts and Chinese Police Reserves were amongst those who were present at the Memorial, while Chinese ratings from the Hongkong Naval Volunteer Force and the Royal Artillery, the Fortress Royal Engineers and the Hongkong Volunteer Defence Corps were on parade.

CATHOLIC NEWS AND NOTES

A POLISH SAINT

The enthusiasm which marked the canonisation of one Polish Jesuit saint, St. Andrew Bobola, within the past year, and his adoption as a national patron, should not obliterate the memory of another Polish Jesuit saint who is already one of the country's chief patrons. This is St. Stanislaus Kostka. His national fame does not rest so much on his achievements, for he was only eighteen years old at the time of his death, as on the fame of his family. He belonged to one of the leading families of Poland and had many connections with the throne.

Though young and delicate he fought against great obstacles in order to enter the Jesuit novitiate, and actually walked from Vienna to Rome in order to achieve his purpose. He lived a very remarkable life during the brief period that he spent in religion, and everywhere he was known he was venerated as a saint.

In connection with the return to Poland of the body of St. Andrew Bobola, mentioned above, there was one very striking incident which aroused great emotion. The President of the Republic met the body of the martyr as soon as it arrived on Polish soil, and his first act was to take from his own breast the Cross of Independence which he wore and place it on the coffin of the saint. A hundred thousand people witnessed the incident.

A FAMOUS CATHOLIC AIRMAN

At forty-two, an airman may be thought to be beyond his prime, but Captain Neville Stack, the Catholic airman who has crowded many successes into his career, has just been appointed Chief Test Pilot to the Austria Aircraft Works at Longbridge near Birmingham, where Fairey Battle medium bombers are now being constructed. Capt. Stack, who was in the Royal Air Force during the war, was the first to make a long-distance light aeroplane flight. This was in 1935 when he flew to India. Previously to that he made three record flights between England and Constantinople in 1931, when he averaged less than a day each way. He also held a record for the flight to London to Copenhagen and back.

Last year he went to Turkey to instruct the civil air pilots there. While there he was consulted on the operation and administration of the internal and foreign air lines, and his advice on their reorganisation was followed. His instructions on air services now appear in Turkish in the official government Landbook on the subject. His most recent achievement was when he headed a formation flight to Turkey of New Bristol Blenheim bombers, such as are now being delivered to the R.A.F.

ALTAR CANDLES

It is sometimes asked why some more modern method of lighting than candles should not be used on the altar for the ceremonies of the Church. The traditional use of candles is, however, a strong argument for their continuance.

Their use did not begin with the Catholic Church, for we know that the famous seven-branch candlestick was one of the many objects in the Temple of Jerusalem. Their use in the Catholic Church began in the Catacombs where artificial light was necessary for the ceremonies. Later, a symbolic significance was given to the candle and that accounted for its continued use instead of any other form of light.

Now definite regulations maintain uniformity, for the colour and the composition of candles are definitely fixed. The difficulty and delay of lighting and extinguishing candles, especially when they are used in large numbers, have led to many experiments for their improvement, and it is now reported from Rome that an electric method has been devised and has been found so satisfactory that it is already employed in several churches there. According to this method it is only necessary to touch a switch in order to light or extinguish the candles.

The method of lighting is by using an electric current—further details are not given—and the extinguishing is done by a small magnetic pump with a piston, fixed to a tube of compressed air. It may seem a very elaborate way to deal with so simple a matter as lighting and blowing out a candle, but it is better than the slow, and often untidy, method that has been in use up to this.

MASS ON A POSTAGE STAMP

Celebrations in memory of the first Mass celebrated in Australia and South Africa formed part of recent centennial and sesquicentennial celebrations in those countries. Now the Republic of Columbia has celebrated the fourth centenary of the same event, for the first Mass was celebrated four hundred years ago on the site of the future city of Bogota, the old Spanish capital and the present capital of the republic. A special stamp has been issued in honour of the occasion and it depicts the actual scene.

Philatelists record only one previous issue of a stamp depicting the celebration of Mass, and that was issued by Mexico in 1910. By a strange coincidence both stamps were of the same value, one peso, and both were printed in London, though by different firms of engravers.

The present Columbia stamp is reproduced by photogravure and is chocolate brown in colour.

LESSON SERMON

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Hongkong.

Subject—Mortals and Immortals. The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches, to-morrow, November 13, will be "Mortals and Immortals."

The Golden Text will be—"If any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." (II Corinthians 5:17).

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible: "I will extol thee, O Lord, for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me. O Lord, thou hast brought up by soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down into the pit. Thou hast turned for me my mourning into dancing: thou hast put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness: To the end that my glory sing praise to thee, and not be silent." (Psalms 30: 1,3,11,12).

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy:—"In divine Science, God and the real man are inseparable as divine Principle and Idea. Error, urged to its final limits, is self-destructed. Error will cease to claim that soul is in body, that life and intelligence are in matter, and that this matter, is man." God is the Principle of man, and man is the idea of God. Hence man is not mortal nor material. Mortals will disappear, and immortals, or the children of God, will appear as the only eternal verities of man. Learn this O mortal, and earnestly seek the spiritual status of man, which is outside of all material selfhood." (Page 476).

THE SCOTS ARE CONCEITED

There is some truth in the accusation that Scots are conceited, but they are not mean, sanctimonious, without manners, and without humour.

This was the answer given on October 25 by Scottish novelist "O. Douglas" (Miss Anna Buchan) when, speaking to an audience of women in Glasgow, she replied to the strictures of an Englishwoman who wrote to her saying that she "loathed the Scots" after knowing many of them as neighbours and co-workers.

Miss Buchan, who gave the first of a series of talks arranged by the Alliance of Honour in Glasgow, said that the "bang gaeed sixpence" story was not much of a story.

But supposing Scots did look twice at every sixpence, would that be surprising when it was considered that for generations they had hardly a coin to look at?

For centuries Scotland was so poor that there was very little money in circulation.

SUFFERED FOR FAITH

What the Scots came through—the bitter struggle of snatching the barest living from poor ground and a harsh climate—had bitten into them. To Scottish people senseless extravagance would always look like a crime.

"But I utterly deny," Miss Buchan added, "that the Scot is mean."

As to their "sanctimoniousness," at heart the Scots were a deeply religious people. How could they help it? Their forefathers suffered for their faith.

They were accused of being full of conceit. "There is just a little truth in that," said Miss Buchan. "I do not think we are conceited about ourselves—though well we might be—but we are apt to over-estimate everything Scottish."

NEW FLYING BOATS FOR MALES

British traditions, attaching to the phrase "The mails must go through" are to be upheld this Christmas by the assistance of some of the eight new Short flying boats, modified versions of the four-engine Empire mail and passenger craft which have inaugurated flat rate postage of 1d. per half-ounce under the Empire air mail scheme.

Opening weeks of their service will be spent auxiliary to the standard fleet now carrying mail to the Empire. This is the first Christmas on which the benefit of fast and safe transit of all first class mail by air to the Empire is to be undertaken.

Thus, though the new fleet has been designed primarily for long-range transoceanic flights such as the Atlantic and Tasman Sea routes, certain equipment for long-range flying may be omitted in order to give the new craft maximum usefulness that the mails may go through on time.

PEARL BUCK WINS NOBEL PRIZE

Stockholm, Nov. 11. The Nobel Prize for Literature has been awarded to Pearl Buck, author of "The Good Earth" and other novels and stories of China.

Born in China of missionary parents, Mrs. Buck contributed at an early age to the "Shanghai Mercury". She had written one or two books before "The Good Earth", a sympathetic history of the rise of a poor Chinese farmer, brought her international fame.

By her first husband, Dr. J. Lossing Buck, well-known educational worker in China, she had two children. She is now married to Mr. Richard J. Walsh, publisher of "Asia" magazine.—Reuter.

TERRITORIAL ARMY STRENGTH

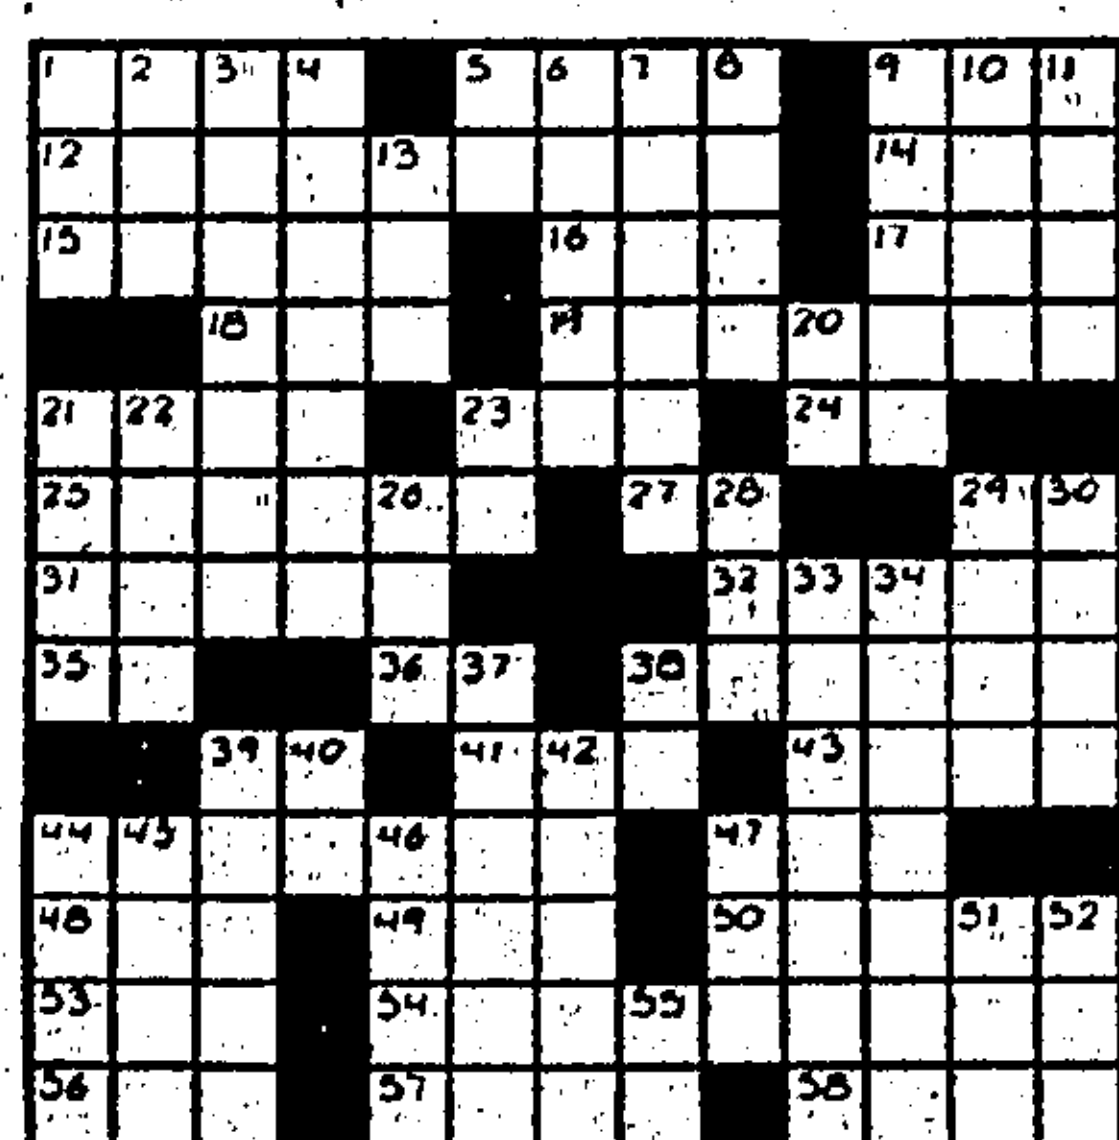

London, Nov. 11. A total of 9,129 recruits joined the Territorial Army in October. Total strength on November 1 was 194,077. This compares with the peace establishment of 201,707.

A striking feature of the recent improvement in strength is that the 1st Anti-Aircraft Division, charged with the defence of London against air attack, has actually reached a strength of 24,070 and is above its normal peace establishment.—British Wireless.

SOLUTION ON MONDAY

Secretary Mr. Kossick here, there, and everywhere; the Rev. Cyril Brown also very much present, and very stilet on the "Ladies, I am conducting a rehearsal, not a conversation party" line, at least a score of the fair sex on the stage; some fewer gentlemen—these are snapshots of the Philharmonic Society's rehearsal at the China Fleet Club on Thursday of their forthcoming production of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Ruddigore."

The honorary producer, Mr. Brown, scans the more than twenty ladies present and suggests that the choice between bridesmaid and villager be made by the simple method of direct challenge—"were you often enough present at these rehearsals to rate the part of a bridesmaid?"

The two model stages, the work of Mr. T. V. Harmon, attracted a great deal of attention. A clay soldier provoked some curiosity in the one stage. They said he was a German soldier. The other stage featured a number of panels, where portraits of various "dignitaries" would be drawn.

Finally, we did hear the chorus of bridesmaids and villagers. A stalwart male chorus joined in. Noise of thunder—but, above it that of the honorary producer. "What sort of a noise is this?" he asked.

But have no worry, ladies and gentlemen of the audience to be the noise from the stage develops into song as the producer, the conductor and pianist labour on.

There are yet four weeks to opening night, on December 14, at the Queen's Theatre, and we know the honorary producer will succeed. And his material, we are positive, is good material.—V.V.K.

U.S. ARMY'S NEW 6-INCH GUN

Shell A Minute At 15 Miles Range

A new field artillery gun, the first of purely American design, has recently been demonstrated in the United States, says the "Daily Telegraph."

The calibre is 155mm, or about 6in. It fires a 95lb projectile to a range of 26,000 yards, or about 15 miles, the rate being one round a minute.

Complete with its 10-wheeled rubber-tyred carrier, on which it is towed, the gun can be brought into action in about 45 minutes.

It is drawn by a tractor, the rear wheels of which are tracks and the front wheels rubber-tyred. Its speed on the road is 10 miles an hour.

Presumably the object of the gun is for counter-battery work and for shooting up rear areas. It is understood that only four guns have so far been constructed, and further experience in actual handling is probably required.

At the same time a new type of American-designed 8in howitzer was shown, which is to take the place of the former 240mm French model.

INNER CABINET'S COLONIAL CESSION SCHEME

African Territories To Be Given Up

CHARTERED COMPANIES AS ALTERNATIVE

(SPECIAL TO THE "HONGKONG DAILY PRESS")

London, November 11. There appears to be no doubt that the Inner Cabinet has already agreed "in principle" to the cession of the Cameroons, Togo, and very large sections of Angola and of the Belgian Congo. In these cases, approximately 70 per cent—and perhaps rather more—of the total amount given up would be given by France, Belgium and Portugal.

Supplementary to this plan was discussed another—as old as the van Zeeland report and a great pet of Dr. Schacht, Reichsbank chief, and Mr. Chamberlain himself—providing for the establishment of "chartered companies," with wide political powers, to undertake the joint exploitation of certain colonial areas not to be ceded outright.

The chartered companies would, it appears, be supposed to operate under a "condominium" of the powers, somewhat on the model of Anglo-French rule in the New Hebrides.

HOW FAR

What is not quite clear is (a) Exactly how far this conception would be proposed by the British as, on the one hand, an alternative to outright cession, and on the other a supplement to it, (b) How far in any case the Germans and their associates in the City would permit any deviation from the outright cession of the whole of the Colonies, by stages, (c) What degree of political resistance within Britain may be expected to the transfer plans, assuming that adequate propaganda is done to paralyse pacifist sections of the Labour Party by suggesting that this is a form of "economic appeasement."

PREMIER'S SILENCE

London, Nov. 11. Asked in the House of Commons to give assurance that the Government had no intention of transferring British colonial or mandated territories, the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, declared yesterday that he had nothing to add to previous statements made by him on the subject.

Numerous supplementary questions failed to produce any further statement.

In answer to other questions, Mr. Chamberlain referred to the forthcoming visit to Paris of the Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, who Mr. Chamberlain said hoped to review the international situation in the light of recent events with members of the French Government.—Reuter.

KENYA FEELING

Nairobi, Nov. 11. "I believe that all members of the Government have strong views on the subject of Tanganyika and so have I," declared the Governor of Kenya, Sir Robert Brooke-Popham, intervening yesterday in the debate in the Legislature of a motion expressing anxiety over the continued uncertainty and asking the Imperial Government for unequivocal reassurance.

The motion was supported by all non-officials of every race on the Council.

The Governor declared it was an improper motion for officials to vote on, but he would immediately transmit a full report to the Secretary of State for the Colonies.—Reuter.

WARNING ISSUED BY MR. A. EDEN

Gt. Britain Must Be First-Class Power

London, Nov. 11. Britain must be a first-class Power, or nothing. With her area and with her population, she literally cannot live as a second or third-class Power.

This ringing warning by Mr. Anthony Eden in House of Commons yesterday was greeted by cheers on both sides of the House, members of all parties joining in acclamation of the viewpoint.

Mr. Eden proceeded to make an impassioned appeal for re-armament to "fulfil our commitments as a nation and as an Empire in the world, where a number of countries are permanently on a war-time basis."

SECURITY AND WELL-BEING

It seemed to him that they had two tasks of overwhelming importance—the security and well-being of the people on the one hand, and the strengthening of home defence on the other, with the creation of a condition of life tolerable for all.

Mr. Eden ended on the note that democracy had got to meet vigorous challenge, and he asked if they must go on living from "hand to mouth," eating, our substance without an ordered plan.

His final appeal for unity and determination for a nationwide endeavour to win for the British people security and employment brought loud Conservative cheers as he sat down.—Reuter.

NAZIS STARVE CLERGY

The step is aimed at depriving them of incomes and pensions.—Reuter.

Bangkok, Nov. 11. A servant of the Minister of Defence, Pibul Songgram, fired a revolver at the Siamese Minister twice yesterday while he was dressing.

Hungary Takes First Ceded Czech Town

Budapest, Nov. 11. Kosice, the largest and most important town ceded to Hungary by Czechoslovakia in accordance with the Vienna arbitration award, was occupied by Hungarian troops yesterday afternoon.

Kosice, which is perhaps better known under its German name, Kaschau, had 70,000 inhabitants in 1930, according to the official Czech census figures.—Transocean.

Hitler's Successor Chosen

Officially stated as the next leader of Germany is Rudolf Hess, who holds the rank of Deputy Fuehrer.

But strange whispers in Berlin say, according to "News Review," that Adolf Hitler has made his last will and testament naming Prince Frederick of Prussia as his successor.

This document has been solemnly deposited with the Reichstag and is to be made public upon the Reichkanzler's death. Prince Frederick is son of the ex-Crown Prince, and grandson of the ex-Emperor of Germany. An enthusiastic National Socialist, he has been active in aid of Hitler's Winter Relief scheme.

Now 27 years of age, the Prince was partly educated in England and for a time worked at Schröder's bank in London, later joining the London agency to the German Potash Syndicate. Last July he was recalled to Berlin to undergo military training.

Longer Skirts For Dinner Gowns

Dinner-wear outlines can be divided into two categories. One is formal and full length; the other informal and short.

When the occasion is important, the longer style is adopted. Skirts are invariably narrow, and centre, front or one-side opening occurs. In some instances these openings proceed from slight wrap-over movements.

Bruiere, for example, carries this idea just round one hip, where self-toned soutache makes an ornament from which hang long tie strings. It is one of this designer's hooded dinner gowns of purple crepe.

They are of unbroken svelte line with sometimes slight trains, but long sleeves collars are nearly always favoured.

There is one black cloth outline with tailored jacket closed up to the neck by bright jade green buttons. Green spangles show on a black sweater worn beneath, and matching green satin gloves go with it.

Mainbocher stresses these items to correspond with handbags in contrasting fabrics and colours for black evening gowns. They pair off in a host of different coloured flames, velvet, plain and broche satin.

Spangles mix with wool for winter. So do gold kid embroideries applied to Vionnet's long-sleeved, short-yoked bolero. It is additional to an entirely different type of dinner gown, and in white and gold for occasional wear with a svelte unbelted model of dark plum cloth. This is a sleeveless gown, but shoulder points are cupped by the cloth being wrought out from a slightly draped high neck line.

BROADCLOTH

The introduction of broadcloth is an interesting facet on winter dinner gowns. Vionnet favours the bolero and closed Eton jacket—in black cloth next a long, slender skirt of misty surface lamaze, shot purple and raspberry red.

Another Eton jacket in amethyst broadcloth is for wear with a black broadcloth skirt of trousered persuasion and a silver lame blouse.

Round About

A gay reception was being held. Men and women attired in the latest fashion garb arrived in groups to attend the affair.

Ladies in silks, satins, fine woollens and crepes set off by many twinkling jewels from their ears, throats, wrists, and hands were parading into the reception room like peacocks. They knew they were personification of chic and smartness. Quickly they traversed the hall way leaving the scent of express perfume in their wake.

The men in formal lounge suits mingled with dignitaries of various nations dressed in uniforms set off by ropes of gold braid, clinking medals, swords about their waists and the clanking of spurs. The headwear, with various insignias, plumes, were laid aside with the more sombre silk hats of the civilian men, as they paraded into the hall where the reception was to be held.

Watching this arrival of men and ladies in finery which glittered and no doubt reminded them of stories in their picture books were two little youngsters hiding behind a high chair in the hall.

The reception commences and gets into the swing of speeches and toasts. Quietly the two children emerge from their observation post and softly cross the hall to examine the queer hats reposing on the tables and stands. And while the affairs of the reception continue to take place, two young children enjoy themselves in trying on the beautiful hats of the male guests. Somebody had a good time and it was probably the two youngsters more than anyone!

A party of five armed robbers last week brutally murdered a Chinese woman and her 18-year-old son after an alarm had been raised during a robbery at 251 Wutling Road, Shanghai. Immediately after the shooting the men made their escape.

The desperadoes entered the place and, at pistol point, herded the occupants into one room while they ransacked the house in search of money and valuables. Just as they were leaving, Mrs. Wong Tsau-sz, aged 52, raised an alarm and one of the men fired at her, killing her instantaneously. Seeing his mother drop to the floor, her son charged the robbers and he was also shot.

Fashion Is All Agleam

Fashion is out to bring a gleam into these days of crises and coming winter.

During working hours, hair follows the new upward trend, but all ornament is excluded. But for festivity stars and circles of diamonds will cluster in the curls. Juliet caps of every conceivable shade of sequin will be worn, or hair can be sprayed with silver or gold.

New materials for formal occasions are finished with a dull shine and embellished with shoulder clusters, brooches, buckles.

These seem to be chiefly bunches of flower or fruit wrought in gold and shown to advantage against a background of glassy blue or green.

Frocks can have stars or what you will sewn on to the material itself. For evening wear there are most attractive coats of mail—capes of sequins to be worn with sparkling bags and slippers.

Rainy weather will bring out gleaming transparent mackintoshes with oiled silk umbrellas or hood.

Legs must also contribute to the general idea and the illusion of shine can be obtained by wearing pearly stockings.

MYSTERY GIRL OF LONDON

Unusual Pavement Artist

A mystery girl has come to Town, writes a London correspondent. "Who, we have been asking ourselves and each other, is the mysterious girl artist who sketches passers-by in London streets masking the lower half of her face with a blue scarf. I have tried to find out, and had my face sketched in two positions, and at the end I knew no more about her than before."

To draw another woman the disguised artist charges 6d., but for men it is 2s. 6d.

"It is just an idea," is all she told me about this.

Despite her youth—she looks only about 20—and her shoes gaping with holes, there is something of the "grande dame" about this pavement artist.

"Just because you have paid me to draw you doesn't mean I am under any obligation to talk to you as well," she snubbed me quietly in her cultured voice. "My life and my reason for being here are my own affair."

There is something almost of the wild animal at bay about her. The only thing she wants is to be left alone, the other pavement artists, match sellers, and toy vendors respect her wish. They do not know who she is, where she comes from. She never speaks to any of them.

LONDON DISCUSSIONS ON PALESTINE

Statement By Secretary For Dominions

London, November 10. Making a statement in the House of Commons with reference to representation at the Palestine Conference, Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, Dominions Secretary, said that the Government was in communication with the governments of Egypt, Iraq, Saudi, Yemen and Trans-Jordan.

Other territories interested were Syria and Lebanon, but these were under French control. While it was not proposed to invite representatives from Syria and Lebanon to London, it was intended to keep in close touch with the French Government.

Answering supplementary questions, Mr. MacDonald made it clear that the preliminary London discussions would be between (1) the Arab, the neighbouring countries and the British Government, (2) representatives of the Jewish Agency and the British Government.

The cost of maintaining them in their normal stations for 1938-39 was estimated to be £1,700,000. It was not possible to furnish figures of the total cost of the military forces in Palestine, but the additional cost of the air force over normal expenditure for 1938-39 to date was £11,000.

PEACE DESIRED
London, November 11. The Arab inter-parliamentary Palestine Congress delegation at present in London, yesterday issued a statement that "to negotiate about Palestine in the absence of her credited leaders will not give an authoritative and permanent character to any settlement."

Muslims and Arabs everywhere genuinely desire to be on good terms with Britain, and the delegation requests the Government not to allow the present opportunity to be spoiled by false notions of prestige.

"HIGH STATESMANSHIP"
London, Nov. 10. The "Jewish Chronicle" leading organ of the British Jews, describes the Government's proposals to invite the Arab States to join in the Palestine discussions as an "act of high statesmanship."

It speaks of the hasty pronouncement of the Jewish Agency as "premature criticism." It urges the Zionist leaders to have a vision of wide political outlook, and not to content themselves with a negative and stubborn clinging to Jewish rights, but to adopt constructive and statesmanlike proposals which would reveal the compatibility of fully implementing these rights with the highest interests and security of Arab fellow citizens.—Reuter.

REBELLIONS MUST STOP
The Government expected all rebellions and activities against the British Government to stop, and if they did not the Government must continue to take measures to end disorder.

He added that the many years record of the present Multa of Jerusalem made him wholly unacceptable as an Arab representative in London.

Mr. MacDonald declared that the Government would enter the Palestine discussions bound by obligations to both Jews and Arabs under the mandate, but it would not seek to prevent either party from presenting arguments for the modification of the mandate.

EXTRA EXPENSES
Mr. MacDonald added that the Government would watch the situation very carefully, and if any question arose of the United States treaty rights being involved, the Government would enter into immediate discussions with the United States.

Mr. MacDonald, in the course of a written reply, revealed that the extra cost of maintaining army units in Palestine, over and above

AMERICA IN THE CRISIS

What Roosevelt Knew

In the recent European crisis, Mr. J. P. Kennedy U.S. Ambassador in London, was convinced that only "a miracle could save off war. He took energetic steps to meet the situation. The American warships, Nashville and Honolulu, stood by ready to take off U.S. citizens who had been unable to leave on ordinary passenger liners.

Supplies of gas masks, steel helmets and tinned food were laid in at the Embassy.

The United States Maritime Commission officials met in Washington and agreed that if war broke out all American merchant ships should be placed under Government control.

U. S. A. CO-OPERATION
So close was the co-operation between Britain and the United States Government during the crisis that the State Department in Washington had detailed plans all ready for assisting Britain to protect her interests in the Far East.

Mr. Cordell Hull, Secretary of State, dared not commit himself definitely, but gave an encouraging reply to a suggestion that America should make herself responsible for Far Eastern affairs if Britain's hands were tied at home.

It was thought that if a general conflagration occurred, Japan would attempt to seize Hongkong, then move down to the Dutch East Indies, establish bases there and finally launch an attack on Singapore.

WEST BROMWICH QUAKE
London, Nov. 11. An "extraordinarily big earthquake," the location of which is at present unknown, was recorded at the seismograph in London and West Bromwich between 8.30 p.m. and 10 p.m. last night. The disturbances were still continuing.

Mr. J. J. Shaw, seismologist at West Bromwich, said that the needle recorded a maximum swing of twelve inches, greater even than the great earthquake in Tokyo in 1923.—Reuter.

The Royal Observatory in Hongkong says that the disturbance, which was registered in Hongkong, probably occurred in the area of Japan.

Other shocks were registered at the beginning of the week by the Observatory seismograph.

Anglo-Italian Friendship In Full Bloom Again

RECEPTION IN HONOUR OF KING VICTOR EMMANUEL'S BIRTHDAY

The m.v. Victoria, Lloyd Triestino, at the Kowloon pier, was completely dressed with flags yesterday morning upon her arrival in Hongkong. The occasion, as we all know, was in celebration and honour of the birthday of King Victor Emmanuel the Third.

Citizens of Italy, their friends, various Government dignitaries and members of the Consular body were invited to a reception aboard this vessel which was honoured by the presence of His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote.

The enclosed deck lounge, where the reception was held, was filled with guests and the formal afternoon dress of civilians made a striking contrast with uniforms set off with gold braid and brilliant decorations.

Marquis G. Pagano di Melito, Italian Consul General, opened the reception with a short speech, congratulating the British Empire, and in particular the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, for the efficient and intelligent manner in which the past European crisis of a month ago had been handled. He also expressed the hope and desire of his King that Britain and Italy would always join together in keeping the peace of Europe.

LOYAL TOAST
After thanking the gathering for their attendance he proposed the toast, which was drunk in champagne, to His Majesty the King.

ANGLO-ITALIAN AMITY
His Excellency, in reply, said:—Mr. Consul General, Ladies and Gentlemen,—My first pleasant duty to-day, as the person who has the honour of representing His Majesty King George VI in Hongkong, is to thank you, Mr. Consul General, for the terms in which you proposed the toast of his health, and you, Ladies and Gentlemen, for your cordial reception of it.

In likening this year to the Roman "dies cretus" you have touched a chord which is ringing in the hearts of both our nations. I remember that on this happy occasion last year I spoke of the long-standing friendship between Italy and Great Britain which has flowered for so many years, and that I uttered a hope that it would soon be in full bloom again.

That hope has been fulfilled, and, if we may believe, as I do, in the happy auguries in the news from Europe, in a very few days the leaders of our two nations will be setting their hands to paper in witness to the renewal of a concord which has been and still is the desire of both peoples; may that friendship ever flourish and remain a strong bulwark of the peace of Europe.

Mr. Consul-General, before I come to exercise the great privilege which falls to me to-day may I thank you, that very charming lady, the Marchesa, and the Italian Community of Hongkong for the kindly welcome which you have given to my wife and myself. It is with real pleasure that we find ourselves again your guests on Italy's National Day.

I will now ask all present to rise and to drink to the health of His Majesty King Victor Emmanuel the Third and to the prosperity of the Kingdom and Empire of Italy.

YOUNG CHINA SINGS SONGS OF VICTORY

Recitals By Wuhan Songsters

As fine an exhibition of amateur singing as we have heard for many a long day was heard on Thursday evening at the Hop Yat Church in Bonham Road when members of the Wuhan Songsters group under the direction of Mr. Hsia Chih-ehin rendered a group of stirring Chinese war songs. A similar programme was broadcast yesterday evening.

Anyone who heard these young Chinese men and women, whose average age is in the region of twenty, could not have left without being thrilled and enthusiastic and humming some of the tunes they had heard, and, by the thunderous applause accorded by the immense crowd and the continuous demands for encores, there was no doubt left in the mind of the writer as to the popularity of the songs.

NOT PROFESSIONALS
The solo singing by Misses Chang Hsin-mei and Pang Su-yung and by Messrs. Chen Ching-ming, Tien Ming-en, and Wang Su-yi were all very well received and an ovation was accorded the accompanist, Mr. Chen Jen-ping, at the conclusion of the songs.

The voices were well above the average, though some of those taking part in the programme apparently did not possess the finer points of throat culture which many had expected of them. Anyhow, they did exceptionally well and all sang with a spirit of gusto and sincerity, which sprang sympathy and loyalty to China into the hearts of every member of the audience. A few disgruntled ones were overheard to say that the singers did not compare with some European artists who had previously visited the Colony.

Admittedly they do not and nobody has made any claim to this effect; they are amateurs one and all, not professionals.

At the end of the programme, after the Rev. Chang, Chuk-ling, who presided announced that $183.33 Hongkong currency, $125 Chinese national currency, and 77 cents Canton currency had been collected as a result of the "hat" being passed round, the audience was invited to join in singing one of the more popular songs.—W.E.C.

various foreign countries and "other unwelcome circumstances." In the face of this gloomy situation, the writer of the "Zansel" article predicts that Japan's total revenues for 1938 and 1939 "will in all likelihood dwindle by one half." Nevertheless, he has a solution "REDICTED" for this predicament—FURTHER which, we note, "was not given birth to by the Japanese. He suggests:—"It would not be a bad idea for Japanese shipping interests to register some of their vessels in certain friendly countries and operate them under foreign flags on the high seas."

WITH THE IMMENSE NUMBER OF VESSELS commandeered by the army and naval authorities as transports and with Japan's shipyards absolutely idle, it is not at all surprising that Japan is a serious predicament so far as her shipping interests are concerned.

In spite of all the propaganda which Tokyo is spreading of the satisfactory state of the budget, in spite of the immense amount of war loans which have been floated, there is no question but that Japan has been badly hit as a result of the Sino-Japanese hostilities, and the probabilities are that, in the end, she will find herself a greater loser than the country which she set out to conquer.

The Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Mr. R. A. Butler, said he had no information that the Japanese intended to destroy the integrity of the Customs. On the contrary, they had undertaken to maintain it, as far as possible, in existing circumstances.

The importance which the British Government attach to its maintenance had been made quite clear.—Reuter.

London, November 11. "What action has the Government taken to make clear that any Japanese proposal to take over administration and control of the Chinese Maritime Customs will be strongly opposed by Britain?" asked Sir J. Wardlaw-Milne (Conservative) in the House of Commons yesterday.

The Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Mr. R. A. Butler, said he had no information that the Japanese intended to destroy the integrity of the Customs. On the contrary, they had undertaken to maintain it, as far as possible, in existing circumstances.

HUPEH RELIEF MEASURES

Chungking, Nov. 11. Measures for the evacuation and relief of refugees in west Hupeh, especially in Shansi and Ichang, are being drafted, according to Mr. Ho Fang-ling, member of the National Relief Commission, in an interview with the Central News yesterday.

If possible, Mr. Ho said, the refugees in the war-affected districts in this part of the province will be entirely evacuated. If the sick and aged fail to withdraw in time, they will be placed under the care of foreign relief workers.

Mr. Ho revealed that through the co-operation of foreigners, more than 20,000 refugees have successfully been evacuated from Kluksiang and Kuling, following the fall of Kluksiang.

FUNDS FROM AMERICA
He further disclosed that more than $5,000,000 of the funds raised in America by Father Jacquinet, sponsor of the Nantao Refugee Zone, have been remitted to China. Part of the amount is now used for the welfare of refugee children and the evacuation of women from fighting zones.

The money collected by Dr. Paul Yu Pih, Bicar-Apostolic of Nanking, has been handed to a relief organisation in Hankow to be applied to the care of refugees there, he said.—Central News.

ARMISTICE CONCERT

For the fourth year in succession, the Hongkong Singers gave an Armistice Day concert last night at St. John's Cathedral, at which there was a large and appreciative audience headed by His Excellency the Governor, Sir Geoffrey Northcote, and Lady Northcote.

The programme, which consisted of Elgar's "For the Fallen" and Brahms' "Requiem," was capably rendered under the direction of Mr. Lindsay LaFord, honorary conductor.

The soloists who were Eva Turner and G. H. Piercy, acquitted themselves creditably in difficult parts.

A collection in aid of St. Dunstan's was taken in the course of the evening.

SHIPPING CRISIS IN JAPAN

THAT ECONOMIC AND FINANCIAL AFFAIRS IN JAPAN have not been conducive to a cheery insight into the future is a matter to which an almost endless line of writers and observers have paid considerable attention. An economic collapse had been predicted and, although this has not yet come to pass, it does not necessarily mean that Japan is immune from a state of internal chaos.

The latest opinion on this matter comes from Tokyo and it indicates that Japan's maritime commerce is rapidly moving toward a crisis. This fear had been felt in Japanese shipping circles for some time and, although the Tokyo Government has attempted to avert it with various measures, it has become increasingly clear that these legislative hypodermics are fairly futile stimulants.

A writer to a recent issue of the Tokyo publication "Zansel" notes that, in view of the situation facing Japan's sea-borne commerce, there are many "who are so pessimistic as to fear that the nation's net income from the shipping business will be reduced to nothing during the current year." While the writer does not concur in the view that the bottom will fall out of the trade, he admits that the situation is undoubtedly a most serious one.

A PARTICULARLY DISCOURAGING VIEW is taken by the "Zansel" writer of the fact that the placement of ships for deep-sea service has shown a marked decrease. As an example, he says, Japan in 1937 had 59 ships engaged in trade with the American Pacific Coast; in 1938, she had only 39. On the Atlantic Coast, she had sixteen ships, less, operating this year. Europe's traffic fell off by a gross tonnage of 53,000, or nine vessels. Altogether, there was a twenty per cent. decrease in the first half of the present year.

Further, the Japanese writer says, some ships under Japanese registry were obliged to run without sufficient cargoes on account of the anti-Japanese boycott movement which has been started in

CANTON AFTER JAPANESE OCCUPATION

Destruction, Disease, Looting, Disorder GAMBLING AND OPIUM SMOKING REVIVED

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT).

Canton, October 31. All is quiet, if not entirely orderly, in Canton. Hundreds who did not have the money to go very far away when the Japanese came, have been drifting back. Had they gone 20 li from the city, they would have reached a station from which the Chinese Government is rationing out rice and other foodstuffs, and could have obtained housing accommodation there. Those who only got across the river to one of the suburbs, or to some village very close to Canton, are the ones who have been obliged to come back, not having the wherewithal to purchase necessities of life away from home.

The small shopkeeper, and even a few of the more important merchants have, during the past week, been joining for mutual protection. A group of these people and their shop assistants are to be seen sitting out on the footpath, challenging all suspicious characters, and it is said that a few revolvers, and most assuredly a collection of knives and cudgels, will be brought out if looters come into their little balliwicks.

The limits of their little districts are marked by ropes or wires stretched across the streets, and notices are up on shop doors to the effect that these premises are under the protection of local organizations, and that arsonists and looters must beware.

Two days ago, a fire broke out, but there have been none since. This started at night, and all those living on the eastern end of Shameen were awakened, for it was property just to the back of the Shakes Maloo, across from the French gate of Shameen, that was being burnt.

It took a little time to get permission from the Japanese, but finally the foreigners of the Customs were allowed to cross the road with hose, and water was pumped from the canal by several small engines, with the result that the fire was soon brought under control.

WIDESPREAD DESTRUCTION
Many a city block has been burned out since that day when every policeman and every fireman left for other parts at the order of the Government. Along the Bund and the Shakes Maloo especially has there been widespread destruction of property. Because the waterworks were dynamited by the Chinese before their army retreated, even had the fire department been on the job it could not have saved buildings at any great distance from the water-front. It did appear to be a shame, however, to see big buildings being gutted by fire along the river-front, when one knew there were plenty of engines lying in the fire-brigade buildings.

TUNGCHEN OCCUPIED BY INVADING TROOPS

Now Only 150 Kilometres From Changsha

Shanghai, November 11. COMPLETELY OUTFLANKING the Chinese positions by two directional attacks, the Japanese forces operating from Tsungyang, completed the occupation of Tungchen, the last Chinese stronghold in Hupeh, according to a Japanese army spokesman.

He said that along the Canton-Hankow Railway, the foremost Japanese units are already in the outskirts of Yochow, important Chinese position on the Tungting Lake, half-way between Hankow and Changsha.

THE SPOKESMAN POINTED OUT that the Japanese driving from Tungcheng may reach Changsha before the columns working down the railway from Yochow.

The distance between Tungcheng and Changsha is approximately 150 kilometres.—Reuter.

FROM THREE SECTIONS

Chungking, Nov. 11. On the north Yangtze front, the Japanese forces are attempting to advance in three directions, says a Chinese dispatch received here today.

One unit is advancing from Kinsgha towards the north-west, and the second is proceeding from Salsyen towards the west, meeting prolonged resistance. It is stated, while the third is pushing south towards Tienmen has suffered severe check.—Reuter.

Chungking, Nov. 11. The Japanese are still creeping slowly towards Changsha, says the latest Chinese military communiqué, stating that the 11th Japanese Division is moving along the Hunan-Hupeh highway in the direction of Tungchen.

At the same time the 21st Division is pushing south along the railway towards Yanglotung. Japanese gunboats in the Yangtze near Kalyu are awaiting an opportunity to offer support, but are still unable to approach Chenglingchi, at the head of Tungting Lake.

Near Tungchen, the Chinese were obliged, after two days of fierce resistance, to withdraw two miles to the south. Both sides, it is said, lost heavily.

The Chinese forces at Yanglotung have also withdrawn following three days of stubborn defence.—Reuter.

ONLY 40,000 JAPANESE NOW IN KWANGTUNG

Threat To Yungyun No Longer Existent

(FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT)

Yungyun, November 10. OWING TO THE SMALL number of Japanese soldiers in Canton and other counties, it is estimated here to-day that the total strength of Japanese forces in Kwangtung is no more than 40,000 officers and men.

The threat to Yungyun is removed, as large numbers of Chinese forces moved down here to-day to the front near Chungshua. It is expected that with more reinforcement the siege of Canton will begin in the next few days.

THE TROOPS COUNTER-ATTACKING Canton are massed at Patsan, Ta Long and Fa Yuen, forming a semi-circle to the north-east of the former provincial capital. The Japanese in Canton are hurriedly building up new defences, and more transports are reported to have arrived there today, bringing in reinforcements.

WAIHOW NEXT?

Chinese forces are planning to attack Waihow, which is more strategic than Canton. One column of Chinese forces are advancing from Hingling on the East River and other units came by way of the Fukien border after a quick transit via Chekiang. This unit is under the command of General Yeh Ting, who harassed the Japanese in the Shanghai area.

Former officers of the 19th Route Army, such as Generals Tsai Ting-kai, Chiang Kwang-nai, Ong Chao-huan, Tan Chi-shu have joined up to serve with the guerrillas. Over 200 Japanese soldiers were killed in the Tungkwon, and Shun Tek counties.

Both Generals Tsai and Chiang are assured of support from many overseas public bodies.

Bride From Home

PRETTY KOWLOON WEDDING

A pretty bride-to-be from Bristol, a tier of her wedding-cake, faultless-made, her pretty bridesmaid, and a very conscientious best man were arrivals in Hongkong by the P. and O. Canton, on Wednesday, passengers on her maiden voyage to the East.

The bride, Miss Emily Blanche Foote, was married, at St. Andrew's Church, yesterday, to the Rev. Victor Dixon, whom the congregation at Christ Church, Kowloon Tong, will recognize as the very able organist who has been playing for them at services there since his arrival in September.

The other tier of her wedding cake the bride left with her parents in England. The very charming bridesmaid was Miss Eva Henshall, and the best man Mr. Richard J. Mulrenan.

Bride, bridesmaid, bridesmaid, and best man are all members of the Bible Church Missionary Society.

The Rt. Rev. Bishop R. O. Hall officiated at the ceremony. Dr. French Oliver, whose arrival here by the R. M. S. Empress of Japan gives him a three-hour seniority over the rest of the bride-party in residence here, gave the bride away.

The bride was crowned in white satin, trimmed with orange blossom, and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemum. Her head-dress was of orange blossom, and she wore a pearl necklace.

NO JAPANESE STEAMERS WILL PLY ON THE YANGTZE

Tokyo, November 11.

Even after the conquest of Hankow, no Japanese commercial steamers will operate on the Yangtze, declared a spokesman of the Foreign Office to-day when dealing with the American and British Notes addressed to Tokyo on November 7, complaining of one-sided prohibition against foreign shipping companies, of commercial steamer traffic on the Yangtze.

These two Notes, whose text are not identical, pointed out that despite the general prohibition the Japanese authorities were allowing Japanese steamers to travel on the Yangtze for trading purposes and that this constituted a violation of the principle of equal economic rights in China for all foreign Powers recognised by Japan in the Washington Agreement.

The spokesman declared that all Japanese steamers running on the Yangtze were engaged in military purposes and not in commerce.—Transocean.

REST OF COLONY WIN ARMISTICE MATCH

United Services Beaten In Soccer Annual

Treating thousands of spectators to a first class game of football, The Rest beat the Combined Services by the odd goal in three on the Club ground yesterday.

Lee Wai-tong, who made one of his rare appearances in local football, scored both goals for his side. He played a very good game and made a number of brilliant attempts which were only frustrated by the splendid goalkeeping of MacAllister.

Henderson and Watson in the back-line for the Services played a steady game and gave good support to MacAllister throughout.

Tam Kwan-kon at the other end played a good game though he was not tested as often as MacAllister. Lee Tin-sang and Mak Siu-hon well supported him and Hui Shu-shing in the half-back line played a hard game.

Towards the final stages of the first half, as the result of a corner, Lee Wai-tong found the net with a grand shot.

Chungking, Nov. 11.

"Canton in a Week" is the slogan of the Chinese columns at present forcing their way southwards, says a Chinese communiqué which adds that the West Railway, Chinghsun and Talang have been recaptured.

Fighting is presently going on outside Poklo which the Chinese expect to take shortly, and guerrillas are reported to be very active on the Canton-Kowloon Railway.—Reuter.

As the Chinese are gaining ground in their counter-attacks along the West River, the Kongmoon boom has temporarily been raised for communication purposes. Sailings to Shekai, Kungyifow and other places have been resumed since November 8.

The Chinese Commander-in-Chief in the East River area has issued orders to launch a general counter-attack on Waihow. Fighting is now raging bitterly in the vicinity of Ping-shan and Lungmoon, states the "Wah Kiu Yat Po."

Japanese reinforcements are being sent from Amoy for the big battle in South China.

As the Chinese are gaining ground in their counter-attacks along the West River, the Kongmoon boom has temporarily been raised for communication purposes. Sailings to Shekai, Kungyifow and other places have been resumed since November 8.

HOCKEY

Sir—I notice, in reading the report of the hockey match between Queen's College and the Ellis Kadoorie Indian School, appearing in your paper this morning, that an error has crept in. K. Singh scored the only goal before the final whistle, he being a player from St. Joseph's and not the E. K. I. S. Further, your report said nothing about the Q. O. attack which nearly resulted in a goal being scored.

AMERICA DECLARES "WHEAT WAR"

Argentine Will Be Greatly Affected By New Step

Buenos Aires, November 11.

EFFORTS NOW BEING MADE by the United States Government to sell North American wheat surplus in Brazil, with the aid of a Government export premium, have given rise to great indignation in the Argentine Republic and have, in fact, already created a situation of grave character.

The trouble has been caused by the fact that Brazil has always been regarded as a natural market for Argentine wheat which it has purchased in the past to the full extent of its requirements.

It is not yet possible to predict the full consequences of the action of the United States but there is no mistaking the fact that the Argentine sees in this plan to drop large quantities of North American wheat in Brazil an unfair attempt to capture one of Argentina's best markets.

This view has already been brought to the notice of the United States Government.

The situation is such that it might easily lead to international complications unless at the last minute a way is found for solving the problem in a friendly and satisfactory manner.

Another Berlin Outburst

Berlin, November 11.

"Every single Jew will have to answer for the murder of von Rath," declares the Nazi news-sheet, "Der Angriff," in another outburst against the murder of the Secretary at the German Embassy in Paris.

"The Jews will have to pay without mercy. The Jews want a fight and they shall have it on the lines of their own doctrine—an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth."

The Nazi Propaganda Minister, Joseph Goebbels, has now ordered immediate cessation of the attacks on Jewish property, but at the same time has foreshadowed additional anti-Jewish laws and decrees.

Jewish department stores in Leipzig were completely destroyed by fire yesterday, states the official German news agency.

"URGENT SUSPICION"

Their owners were taken into custody "on urgent suspicion" of being incendiaries and attempting anti-Jewish outrages.

An official of the Police Presidency informed Reuter that the "entire responsibility of the action against Jewish shops rests on the Propaganda Ministry."

Officials state that no window smasher or looter has been taken into custody.

MANY SUICIDES

Vienna, Nov. 10. Twenty-two Jews committed suicide here this morning due to the anti-Jewish outrages.

All Jews waiting outside of the British Consulate for emigration visas were arrested to-day. "All synagogues have been destroyed except one."

It is estimated that at least 10,000 Jews have been arrested.—Reuter.

LADIES TO OPEN THE SOFTBALL PROGRAMME

Unbeaten Men's Teams To Clash To-morrow

(BY R. O. Y.)

Softball fans will be well catered for to-morrow, when the ladies will again entertain prior to the three league matches which are down for decision.

Much speculation is being indulged in as to the eventual results of two of the games in which four unbeaten teams are due to clash, with the resulting readjustment of League standings.

The first ladies game will start at 10 a.m., on the Central British Association ground, and will see the Panthers in action against Revere Ladies, directly after which the Central British Beauties will try conclusions with the Chinese Girls.

At 12.30 p.m. the Trojans will take on the Hongkong Baseball Club. The former, after their poor showing of last week, have engaged in intensive practice sessions and are expected to give their opponents a hard tussle. Manager Dave Walker expects to have his squad at full strength, but as his players have disappointed so often, it must be considered only a possibility.

Four different pitchers have been seen in the four games the Baseballers have played to date, and it will be interesting to see if they have yet another moundman.

The second game will feature the undefeated Chinese Baseball Club in action against the English Forum, who also have a perfect winning record. The Chinese Baseballers will be without the services of their star hurler, Tuffy Chin, who left for Seattle yesterday. Tommy Chan will probably do mound duty and many positional changes will have to be made. Some new players may also be started.

The Forumers feel very confident of being able to take honours from the much weakened local champions and will field their strongest team, to safeguard against any surprises.

To finish proceedings, the 3rd Machine Gun Coy., will defend their unbeaten record against the League leading Midgits, but, much improved as they undoubtedly are, I cannot see them being successful unless Rapley can repeat his previous No-hit performance on the mound.

The Midgits are chockful of confidence and expect to walk away with the league championship as they consider the reigning champs to be no longer a force to be feared.

Western Nations View Japan's Trade Threat With Growing Concern

REPRESENTATIONS BY BRITISH, AMERICAN, GERMAN INTERESTS MAY LEAD TO FIRMER ACTION

By Alec Greaves

That alarm over existing conditions and anxiety concerning future prospects of trade in China is felt by more than one Western nation is confirmed by the latest reports from abroad, which indicate that in London, Washington and Berlin considerable discussion is taking place or is about to be initiated with the purpose of finding measures to keep the "open door" in China really open and to check the serious threat presented by the Japanese.

RECORD WORLD PRODUCTION OF GOLD

World gold production during the first eight months of 1938 established a new high record, according to the American Bureau of Metal Statistics.

World production, excluding Russia, totalled 20,822,000 ounces for the first eight months of this year, compared with 19,826,000 ounces in the same period of 1937. At current prices, this year's output had a value of $721,420,000, compared with $688,910,000 in the same period last year.

Gold production in the United States is not keeping pace with the rapid expansion in other countries, production for 1938 barely holding its own against that of 1937, the Bureau reported.

U.S. production of 3,095,000 ounces for the first eight months of this year was a gain of only 2.6 per cent over last year, whereas world output is up 5 per cent.

GOLD RESERVES

A comparison between production and known gold reserves of central banks and governments reveals that none of the new production is being added to official reserves, but instead is going into hoarding.

Latest Federal Reserve Board report on gold reserves of central banks and governments covering 52 nations showed official gold reserves at the end of June at $23,813,000,000 compared with $23,964,000,000 on December 31, 1937, showing a decline of $151,000,000.

GOVERNMENT TENDERS

The following tenders are called for in the "Government Gazette":

For the supply of about 4,500 brass dog licence badges of approved shape;

For photographing during a year, commencing January 1, 1939, applicants for licences; suspicious persons, etc.;

For the construction of a bridge at Mile 6-1/8;

For the supply of biological products to the Medical Department;

For the supply of provisions and sundries and washing required by the Medical Department;

For the construction of a flush latrine for the Forestry Store, Kennedy Road;

For making extensions to the Tsan Yik Maternity Hospital; and

For Government stores.

JAPAN WITHDRAWS FROM I.L.O.

Geneva, Nov. 11

The Japanese Bureau has notified the League that Japan's withdrawal from the International Labour Office became effective on November 3.

The Japanese have rejected the I.L.O. contention that two-years' notice is necessary.—Reuter.

REICHSMARK QUOTATIONS

Berlin, Nov. 11

The Reichsmark was quoted, without guarantee, as follows: New York 40.77.

Paris, 151.50.
Amsterdam, 73.74 to 73.76.
London, 11.855.

Paris Sterling, 178.81 to 178.87.
Paris U.S. Dollar, $1.895 to $1.976.

LAST YEAR'S STRIKES

Cost 50,755,454 Working Days

Labour strikes and lockouts in 19 countries of the world last year numbered 10,267, involved 4,233,944 workers, and accounted for a loss of 50,755,454 working days.

These statistics, compiled by the International Labour Office and published in its Year Book, show that the United States had the largest number of labour disputes. A total of 4,740 strikes involved 1,860,621 workers, and a loss of 23,424,857 working days.

Poland came next with 2,103 disputes, and with 545,145 workers losing 3,297,105 working days. Great Britain was third, with 1,122 strikes, involving 565,000 and a loss of 3,420,600 working days.

Other countries were Czechoslovakia, with 438 strikes; India, with 379; Australia, with 342; and Canada, with 274.

The number of strikes, the report shows, was by no means in direct ratio to the number of workers involved, as may be seen in the case of Palestine and Estonia. Fifty-three strikes in Palestine tied up 6,000 workers, and five strikes in Estonia involved slightly more.

NAVAL CONTRACT FOR GERMANY

LOSS TO FRENCH INTERESTS

It is reported that the Yugoslav Government is shortly to order eight big destroyers in Germany. The value of this contract would be about $2,600,000.

This will be a severe blow to French shipbuilding interests, which had confidently reckoned on obtaining all future Yugoslav naval contracts.

A large amount of French capital is invested in the recently-constructed dockyard at Split, where two destroyers are being built to French design.

The loss of the new order for eight destroyers is attributed by French authorities in large measure to the delay in delivering previous vessels, this delay being due to the 40-hour week.

RISING U.S. INDEX OF INCOME

The index of the income received by persons in the United States in September was 83.3, compared to 82.5, the August index.

The advance was the fourth consecutive monthly increase. The highest since the recovery, however, was 90.2 registered in August, 1937.

CURRENT WORLD WHEAT PRODUCTION HIGH

Current world wheat production is running far above last year's crop. Total production, excluding Soviet Russia and China, is estimated at around 4,345,000,000 bushels. The shows an increase of 510,000,000 bushels over the estimate for last year.

The crop in the Northern Hemisphere, excluding China and Soviet Russia, is indicated to be around 3,860,000,000 bushels. This is an increase of 470,000 bushels over last year's crop.

Total American wheat supplies are estimated at 1,094,000,000 bushels, consisting of a carry-over of 154,000,000 bushels of old wheat and a crop of 940,000,000 bushels, leaving about 395,000,000 bushels for export and carry-over.

According to the United States Department of Agriculture, if about 100,000,000 bushels are exported, carry-over of July 1, 1939 would total about 295,000,000 bushels. Without insurance stocks, the total would be around 265,000,000 bushels. This compares with 325,000,000 bushels the average for the 1930-34 period, when stocks reached record size.

A production of 250,000,000 bushels is indicated for Argentina and 160,000,000 bushels for Australia, which together show an increase of about 35,000,000 bushels compared with last year.

With low prices and abundant supplies, says the U.S. Agricultural Department, disappearance during the present season may approximate 3,850,000,000 bushels and carry-over on July 1, 1939, on the basis of present crop prospects, would be about 1,145,000,000 bushels, which would compare with the record carry-overs in 1933 and 1934 of 1,144,000,000 and 1,193,000,000 bushels respectively.

Total world net imports of wheat for the year beginning July 1, 1938 are estimated at about 50,900,000 bushels above last season. Countries which probably will increase their imports include the United Kingdom, Italy and Spain. German imports seem likely to be maintained at a fairly high level, largely for the purpose of building up stocks.

Exports from the southern part of Soviet Russia this season have been heavier than in any year since 1931, amounting to about 24,000,000 bushels for the period from July 1 to September 17.

World rye production is about 100,000,000 bushels above the harvest of 1937.

The market opened with prices unchanged for all deliveries as compared with Tuesday's closing quotations.

Throughout the session the market displayed a steady undertone in sympathy with conditions prevailing in London, whilst the New York Rubber Exchange was closed on the 8th inst. (Election Day). Some fair buying interest for "spot" Rubber was in evidence, whilst activity for trade and speculative accounts was only moderate.

After some business having been done at quoted rates, the market closed with a quiet undertone.

U.K. Board of Trade Statistics for the first nine months of this year, compared with the corresponding period of the two previous years, reveal the following figures:

	1938	1937	1936
Imports — January-September	143,781	94,453	51,393 tons
Exports — January-September	19,508	37,934	52,758

Little general inquiry. Market steady.

NEW YORK COTTON

Prices early advanced on heavy speculative buying, covering by shorts and foreign buying together with the strength of Wall Street. Sentiment was buoyant, with the market also aided by the strength of other commodities. Later, prices partially eased on lower Liverpool cable and profit-taking, but again finally rallied on renewed foreign and speculative buying and the market closed firm.

NEW YORK RUBBER

Prices opened higher on better London and Singapore advices and advanced further on better general enquiry and on the strength of the stock market. A further fillip was given to the market by renewed trade and commission-house buying, while manufacturers were also more interested.

CHICAGO WHEAT

Prices moved higher on the strength of the foreign markets and on the firmness of other commodities. Export and mill demand were better, while dealers and commission houses also bought. In the latter part of the session, profit-taking set in and prices partially eased towards the close.

BRITISH TRADE ENDANGERED

Firm Attitude Urged

London, Nov. 11.
The question of foreign trade in China is the subject of a letter to "The Times" by Mr. J. W. Nicholson, chairman of the China Section of the London Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Nicholson expresses the hope that the Government would be taking a long view policy and bearing in mind that while reconstruction of China by Japanese industry might employ some British finance, this would be very cold comfort British industry, commerce or shipping.

Nor would it be in the interest of China herself to have only one foreign source to look for help in developing the country.

This matter is one affecting all nations which in the past have traded with China, and it should not be impossible to look forward to joint action in the Far East which would result in the establishment of normal trading conditions to the advantage of all.

It is hoped that the Government will do everything possible to protect British industry, trade and shipping in China by adopting a firm attitude in every case of interference by the Japanese.
